Summer concert 200 years of Johann Strauss Sohn

🕒 Friday 18:00 o'clock

After an aperitif is served in the castle garden at 18:00, the Honeck Quartet will accompany us through the evening from 19:30.

Description

All waltzes! Musical highlights from the Strauss dynasty can be heard in the old town of Bludenz.

Whether waltzes, marches or polkas, concertgoers can expect a lively and varied program. Under the direction of Vorarlberg violinist Matthias Honeck, some of the most beautiful and famous melodies of the waltz king Johann Strauss Sohn, the Strauss dynasty, will be performed.

Visitors can look forward to a top-class summer concert with the Honeck Quartet - all string players and members of the Vienna Symphony Orchestra - in the wonderful ambience of the castle park and the Laurentius Church.
