

Breithornhütte

MOUNTAIN HUT/MOUNTAIN RESTAURANT

📍 Partnom 99, 6731 Stein

At home as a guest.

The Bickel family's Breithornhütte is situated in the middle of the idyllic Oberpartnom alpine pasture, one of the most beautiful spots in the Grosses Walsertal.

At 1,680 metres above sea level, it is the highest hut in the Sonntag-Stein area and sits proudly at the foot of the Breithorn, from which it takes its name.

This location makes the hut an ideal starting point for numerous hikes and tours, both in summer and in winter. Alpe Oberpartnom is the perfect place for those who want to get away from it all, for those who are looking for peace and quiet in the mountains or for those who are looking for a sporting challenge.

A small vegetarian menu is available.

Dogs are welcome.

Rest days are possible during the summer months.
