Walserweg | Thüringerberg - Damüls

HARD | REFRESHMENTS | PANORAMIC | CULTURAL / HISTORICAL | FROM A TO B

Tour description

In earlier times, when there were no roads in the Grosses Walsertal, the individual villages were only connected by footpaths. Today, these footpaths form the historic Walserweg.

In the past, when there were no roads in the Great Walser Valley, the villages were connected by footpaths. Today these footpaths form the historic Walser trail.

It begins in Thüringerberg at the entrance to the valley and leads straight to the cultural center of the Walser valley, to the Provost's Monastery in St. Gerold with its beautiful monastery garden.

Further on it goes to the small village of Blons, where the path splits for the first time: You can either hike over the massive dam wall of the Lutz power plant to Raggal on the other side of the valley or directly to Sonntag, where you again have two options. One signpost points to the beautifully situated village of Buchboden, the other to Fontanella-Faschina.

From Faschina the path leads down to Damüls - also a Walser community. There you will find the end of the Walser trail.
